

Facilities Alert**
New Office Locations

As you may have observed, the renovation of the Applied Technology Building is underway and other construction projects throughout the campus begin. Several offices have moved to new locations on campus. The map provided below depicts the new office locations. Please note that this new office locations update map is available on the Building Program link at www.riohondocollege.info.

Contact Facilities Services, extension 3441

